PROSTART TRAINING ACCREDITED TO THE MATRIX STANDARD

Roger Prostart Training, has been accredited to the matrix standard, demonstrating the high-quality Information Advice and Guidance services they provide to clients.

Prostart was established in 1999 and operates out of its offices in Long Eaton in Nottingham offering apprenticeships across the East Midlands and the Study Programme for 16-18 year old's providing qualifications and work experience. The Company's vision is to 'Inspire excellence through commitment to our customer and partners to prepare the best future for our community'.

The matrix Standard is the international quality standard for organisations that deliver information, advice and/or guidance (IAG), either as their sole purpose or as part of their service offering.

Roger Chapman, Head of the matrix Service for The Growth Company said:

"This is a fantastic achievement for Prostart Training and I would like to congratulate the team on their success. We believe that at the heart of high-quality advice and support services are strong leadership, excellent service and a focus on continuous improvement, all underpinned by effective use of the resources available. The matrix Standard is designed to benchmark organisations against best practice in these areas. With their accreditation success, Prostart is working to provide the best possible support to their clients."

Commenting on the award, Denise Newcomb Managing Director, said: "We are very proud of to once again be accredited with the Matrix standard which demonstrates our continued excellence in the service we deliver to our learners."
